

Teaching Artist

Part-Time, Seasonal

Position Summary

ICA San Diego is a living laboratory for expanding the transformational power of contemporary art to build vibrant communities. Our exhibitions and events spark curiosity and open doors for new connections. Our classes help people connect the dots between art and their everyday lives. All our programs are designed to foster a thriving contemporary art ecosystem in San Diego.

The Teaching Artist will be responsible for planning and teaching classes to students of all ages and skill levels. They will also be responsible for creating a supportive and inclusive learning environment that encourages exploration, creativity, and skill development. The Teaching Artist will report to the Education Manager.

We are currently accepting proposals for our ceramics and photography program, as well as our multidisciplinary workshop series, spanning all visual mediums. Please indicate your preferred medium in the space provided on the application form.

Responsibilities

- Provide a welcoming, inclusive, and supportive atmosphere for learning
- Design relevant and engaging lesson plans appropriate for the age and skill level of students
- Deliver dynamic and engaging art classes, workshops, and programs to a diverse range of participants
- Demonstrate proper methods of using and cleaning equipment and space
- Coordinate with Education Manager and other ICA staff as needed

Required Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities

- In-depth knowledge of one or more visual arts mediums (specify in application)
- Ability to effectively and accessibly communicate with students and staff
- Ability to adapt to a range of ages and skill levels
- Effective classroom management skills
- Strong customer service and teamwork experience

Preferred Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities

- Bilingual (Spanish/English) preferred

Required Education and Experience

- Experience teaching in a classroom setting
- Experience using advanced equipment and/or techniques relevant to the specific medium

Preferred Education and Experience

- BFA in Studio Art or related field

Work Environment and Physical Demands

The Teaching Artist will work onsite at ICA North, ICA Central, or surrounding areas. Lifting, frequent standing, bending, kneeling, and other physical movement may be required. Any reasonable accommodations needed to perform the essential functions of this role should be communicated to hiring manager.

Travel

No travel will be required of this position.

Compensation

Hourly rate is $35 for lesson planning and for teaching.

Inclusion

ICA San Diego strives to demonstrate leadership by modeling excellence and best practices for inclusion, diversity, equity, and accessibility. We believe in the power of human creativity and value the opportunities for connection and learning that exist when cultures and communities come together in collaboration and understanding.

We commit to championing policies and practices that value diversity, foster cultural equity, and create an accessible and inclusive environment. ICA San Diego does not discriminate based on race/ethnicity, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, socioeconomic status, geography, citizenship status, religion, or any other protected class. We recognize our strengths lie in the broad range of people who contribute their time and talents to our mission and are dedicated to creating a safe, inclusive place.

APPLY HERE